

ASX RELEASE

Half Year Profit Guidance

16 February 2017

New Hope Corporation Limited (ASX:NHC) advises that its Net Profit After Tax (NPAT) for the half year ended 31 January 2017 is anticipated to be within the range of $50 million to $54 million before non-regular items.

In addition to the above, the company is also likely to record a non-regular profit after tax of approximately $14 million which predominantly results from a favourable adjustment to provisionally priced rail services in prior periods, as announced to ASX on 15 November 2016.

The company therefore expects to deliver a NPAT for the half year ended 31 January 2017 in the range of $64 million to $68 million after non-regular items. The above profit guidance estimates are still subject to audit review clearance.

It is anticipated that New Hope will release its first half financial results for the period on Tuesday, 21 March 2017.
